Every person who visits the footsteps of dear saints strives to be worthy of such breeds in every aspect.

The Prophet, may God bless him and grant him peace, said in a hadith:

ذُكِّرُوا مَحَاسِنَ مَوْتِكُمْ

those who said " Remember your past with the good deeds you have done " .

The first President of the Republic of Uzbekistan, as a Muslim with strong faith, who always said that "Allah is in our heart, in our heart", did great things for the development of Islam. In particular, in 1989 - during the time of the former authoritarian regime, the meanings of the verses of the Holy Qur'an were translated into Uzbek and published in thousands of copies. In this way, our people had the opportunity to read the primary source of the religion of Islam, which they have believed in for centuries, in their native language, and to think about its meaning. Since the first years of independence, blessed Ramadan and Eid al-Adha were declared national holidays and rest days. All conditions were provided for Muslims to perform their prayers safely.

During the years of independence, the places where the ashes of our great ancestors settled forever were improved, and their spiritual heritage was passed on to our people. In particular, the birthdays of scholars such as Bahauddin Naqshband, Mahmud Zamakhshari, Najmuddin Kubro, Imam Bukhari, Imam Abu Mansur Moturidi, Burkhaniddin Marginani, Abdukhaliq Fijduvani, Khoja Ahror Vali were widely celebrated.

Also, monuments such as "Hazrati Imam" in Tashkent city, Shahi Zinda in Samarkand, Hakim at-Termizi tower in Big Surkhondarya in Bukhara, Ahmed Farghani in Ferghana, Ichankala in Khiva, "Kok Gumbaz" in Karshi and Zangiota in Tashkent region were built.

In the years of independence, incomparable work was done to glorify the names of our ancestors, study their rich cultural heritage, and turn the places where they rested into prosperous destinations. Admittedly, such good deeds continue today. During the visit of the second President of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Shavkat Mirziyoyev, to the Surkhondarya region, the task of intensively continuing the great creative work at the shrine of Abu Isa at-Tirmizi in the Sherabad district was put on the agenda.

Also, at the session of the Islamic Cooperation Organization held in Tashkent in October 2016, our government proposed to establish the Imam Bukhari International Research Center in Samarkand to study the heritage of our great ancestors in order to preserve the values of Islam. This proposal was fully supported by representatives of all Muslim countries.
